Excerpt of pertinent information :

1. At a recent conference in Paris attended by General Nicolae Radescu, Grigore Niculescu-Buzesti and Viorel Tilea, a tentative agreement was reached to establish a Rumanian resistance committee. Despite the opposition of Buzesti to the membership of Charles Davila and Tilea, both of the latter were accepted for the sake of a united front. All those present agreed that Radescu will head the committee.

2. The composition of the Rumanian resistance will be as follows:

General Nicolae Radescu. . . .

3. Another source reports that the purpose of Radescu's trip to Europe is to contact King Mihai in order to explain the activities of the Rumanian political leaders in exile and to have Mihai decide as to the course they should follow. Radescu is said to have expressed the hope that all Rumanian groups abroad will abide by Mihai's decision. Radescu intends to return to the United States when the matter is settled. . . .

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
